Parking Fee Waiver at Kenneth Hahn State Recreation Area for the Department of Parks and Recreation's "Renaming of the Eastern Ridgeline Trail" Event

Kenneth Hahn State Recreation Area (KHSRA), located at 4100 S. La Cienega Boulevard in Los Angeles, was renamed in 1988 in honor of former Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, who served on the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors from 1952 to 1992.

Owned by the State of California and operated by the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation (Department), KHSRA plays a vital role in the community. It is a central gathering place, making available a host of natural resources and amenities that provide residents with safe, healthy outdoor recreation and a variety of opportunities that help them to lead more active lifestyles.

On Saturday, October 25, 2014, the Department will host an event at KHSRA to celebrate the naming of a park trail in honor of the Honorable Los Angeles County Superior Court Judge James K. Hahn, former Mayor of Los Angeles and son of Kenneth Hahn. The renaming of the Eastern Ridgeline Trail, to Jim's Eastern Ridgeline Trail, will honor Judge Hahn's tremendous contributions to the community, and further recognize the Hahn family's special place in the modern history of Los Angeles County.
